

Quite Restricted I am . . .

Quite restricted I am externally and unrestricted internally;
I am in the cupboard of your thoughts crying inwardly.

When I opened the window of elapsed moment slightly;
Hundreds of memories entered inside quickly.

How can I reduce the grandeur of a palace even trivial?
Someone waits inside for centuries several.

From the self within, I struggle to depart outward;
I already feel a lot of swelter inward.

What to do? Her name learnt by rote fluently within;
Can neither be erased nor forgotten.
