About the Research Conclave 2023

This Research Conclave will provide a platform for researchers, experts, educators, and other stakeholders to discuss and deliberate on the critical role of the principles of Panch Prans (पंच प्रण- Five Pledges) to achieve the goal of Developed and Vishvaguru Bharat. The proposed conference will prove to be a path-breaking event in this area where scholars from diverse fields will present their papers and exchange their ideas. It will also provide a platform of interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary study for developing a holistic understanding of the proposed theme to examine the challenges and prospects of next 25 years, in the pursuit of vision for India@2047.

About SHoDH

SHoDH is an initiative which provides a common platform to the researchers from diverse fields to discuss and deliberate issues that are relevant for the Academic, Cultural, Economic, Social, as well as national Security of India. SHoDH provides the opportunity to adopt a multidisciplinary and holistic approach to research for the development of society. A dynamic and innovative research community will turn problems into opportunities for national transformation. SHoDH utilizes these opportunities as well as the individual efforts of researchers and academicians for a seamless exchange of ideas. This creates an environment for an interdisciplinary approach in research by thinking and innovating at the grass root level. Under the initiative, scholars are encouraged to conduct research and present findings away from the biases based on scientific methods and research ethics.
